A Pelli Clarke Pelli-designed sky-high duplex recently listed for $19.5 million. Taking up a full city block between 59th and 60th Streets at West End Avenue, resort-inspired One West End is open for interested buyers.

This apartment has numerous amenities to offer within its 5,302-square-foot of interior space with four bedrooms and five-and-a-half baths. The space offers some special amenities, such as a media room, lofted library, living room with a fireplace, intimate dining room with a chef's demonstration kitchen, which creates the ultimate living experience.

Potential buyers are welcome to socialize with other unit holders on the communal terrace as well, featuring cabanas, lush gardens, and areas for grilling. For a more intimate experience, a double height great room in the apartment leads out to the 3,000-square-foot terrace surrounded by gorgeous skyline views.

Sleek architectural detailing presents itself through all aspects of design, including the 75-foot swimming pool located within a double height cantilevered atrium and private fitness center and spa. The listing also provides on-site parking and storage for its residents.
